We are very excited to welcome over 1,000 new international students to campus this fall and are looking for volunteers for our Small Pack Leaders(SPL) and Culture to Culture Ambassadors (CCAP) program. Small Pack Leaders support incoming international graduate students and Culture to Culture Ambassadors provide pre-arrival and first-semester support to incoming international undergraduates. Each program includes extensive training and support from the Office of International Services staff and our partners and provides leadership opportunities that strengthen the campus community and global learning. We hope you'll join the OIS in welcoming our new international students to campus this fall! The application for both SPL and CCAP will close on April 4th at 11:59 PM.

Small Pack Leader / CCAP Ambassador Application

OPT
The OPT application window is open for Spring 2018 graduates (and those who may be thesis/dissertation students whose last semester of enrollment will be Spring 2018). OIS recommends that students begin the application process early because USCIS processing times are up to 90 days. Students must submit their application to OIS during one of our OPT drop-off sessions. Sessions are offered at OIS (320 Daniels Hall) every Monday and
Alternative Intercultural Service Break (AISB) 2019
Consider applying for the 2019 Alternative Intercultural Service Break Trip Leader for 2019! AISB is fun, exciting, service-oriented program during Spring Break. The Office of International Services is looking for volunteer student leaders to plan, promote, review, lead and facilitate the trip for 2019. The time commitment for the Trip Leaders will be 3-5 hours per week during Fall 2018 and 5-7 hours per week in Spring 2019. The application will close on April 20th at 5 PM. Apply now

More Culture Corps Volunteers Needed
Culture Corps is a unique program at NC State University that sends international students and scholars out into the Raleigh community to share information about their countries and cultures. International students/scholars visit schools in the Wake County Public School System to share on a variety of topics. Sign up here
